In what genre would you find MOBY DICK by Herman Melville?

2. 'Moby Dick' or 'The Whale' is a story of a group of sailors aboard the Pequod lead by Captain Ahab. They are on a quest to take revenge on a giant white sperm whale. The giant white sperm whale had bitten off one of Captain Ahab's legs during his previous voyage, hence his madness.

Have a look at following important quotes from the novel Moby Dick.

Call me Ishmael. (This is the opening line of the classic novel.)

In life, the visible surface of the Sperm Whale is not the least among the many marvels he presents....

I try all things, I achieve what I can.

- What do you think each one means?

3. Guess what the following might refer to in the video. Make notes.

4. Understand the introduction. Read the first part from the introduction. The sentences are not in the right order.
Mark them from 1 to 9. The first sentence has been done already.

Instead, it's a multi-layered exploration of not only the intimate details of life aboard a whaling ship, but also subjects from across human and natural history, by turns playful and tragic, humorous, and urgent. ____

On the surface, the book is the story of Captain Ahab's hunt for revenge against Moby Dick, the white whale who bit off his leg. ____

The lid of an immense snuffbox. ____

A mountain separating two lakes. __1__

These seemingly unrelated images take us on a tour of a sperm whale's head in Herman Melville's "Moby Dick." ____

But though the book features pirates, typhoons, high-speed chases, and giant squid, you shouldn't expect a conventional seafaring adventure. ____

Ishmael starts out telling his own story as he prepares to escape the "damp and drizzly November in [his] soul" by going to sea. ____

A room papered floor to ceiling with bridal satins. ____

The narrator guiding us through these explorations is a common sailor called Ishmael. ____

Now watch the first part of the video (0.00 – 1.10) and see if you got the right order.

Continue and watch the rest.
